

Seven interesting facts about Quebec private school

1

Quebec private schools provide high quality education to 12% of students in Quebec, from kindergarten to grade 11.

2

A poll conducted in late 1994 showed that 99% of parents who chose a private school for their children were satisfied.

3

Upon graduation, students from private schools in Quebec are fluent in French and English, and a growing number of them master a third language.

4

Over 90% of private school students successfully graduate and move on to college and university.

5

Quebec high school student are the best in the Western Hemisphere in mathematics, according to the OECD Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA). Only seven Asian nations achieve higher math scores. Quebec students score higher in French than students in France and also do well in science.

6

Quebec private school are not reserved to the elite. They accept a wide range of students from a variety of backgrounds. Over the years, they have developed various programs to accommodate all students and help them develop their full potential.

7

To work in a private school in Quebec, teachers must hold a teaching licence from the Quebec government.

